

Starter: What are you studying now?

Question from Jennifer about last week: Which aspect do you think is the most important for our government? Use specific example to support your idea (for example: public health, open market, international status, and etc.)

Discussion: US 2020 Election

1. Do you follow US 2020 Election? Is it important for you?
2. Why do nations around the globe pay attention to US 2020 Election?

KWL Practice

Know	Want to know	Learned

Article

1. Why did Trump say that the election was a fraud?
2. What are others' response to Trump's claim of fraud?
3. What would you do if you believe the competition you are joining is unfair?
4. Do you think that Trump has the right to sue the election?
5. Do you have the experience of being deceived?

Biden Speech Video

1. What do you feel about this speech?
2. What points did Biden mention in his speech?
3. In comparison, what's the difference between Biden's speech and Trump's statement?

In America, we hold strong views. We have strong disagreement. And that's OK. Strong disagreement is inevitable in Democracy. Strong Disagreement is healthy. They are signs of vigorous debate.

1. Is it necessary to have strong disagreement?
2. What is the purpose of conserving the freedom of speech?
3. What are the problems caused by the freedom of speech?
4. How can we solve those problems, in the meanwhile guaranteeing the freedom of speech?

Extra:

1. What's the best solution to deal with disagreement?
2. Why do some US citizens not believe the result of 2020 election?
3. Was there any previous US election that had similar situation?
4. Was there any previous event that had strong disagreement?
5. How/ Who/ and in what ways can people control or interfere the integrity of election?